[1] Excluding observational and practice-based experiences and student teaching.

[2] These degrees are designed to provide adequate subject content coupled with teacher preparation from the College of Education. (1) Initial Program–Leads to Initial Teacher Licensure. (2) Initial Program–Does Not Lead to Teacher Licensure. This program does not include a student teaching component, and does not therefore lead to licensure, but may lead to career advancement for those already licensed as teachers. (3) Advanced Program for Continuing Professional Education. (4) Initial Program leads to Principal Licensure. Applicants to the program are responsible for contacting their state department of education for licensure requirements and program approval. Arizona or home state fingerprint/background clearance is required for all practicum/field experiences and student teaching.

[3] The Master of Education in Educational Administration, offered by the College of Education, is an institutionally accredited program approved by the State of Arizona. It aligns with the Professional Standards for Educational Leaders (PSEL, 2015) led by the National Policy Board for Educational Administration (NPBEA, 2018).

[4] MOU 9700 & 9701: This scholarship is only valid for those applicants who are participating in a GCU College of Education or Secondary Education Emphasis master's degree program, offered online, and who submit a completed application to start their program on or before December 31, 2025. If you enroll in a master's degree program through any of the College of Education or Secondary Education Emphasis degree programs offered online, Grand Canyon University will offer you 18% off the tuition per course for your program. This scholarship will be applied at the same time the tuition charges occur. This scholarship cannot be used in conjunction with any other GCU scholarships/awards. This scholarship will be applied toward your tuition only and does not include fees (i.e., Canyon Connect, Technology, etc).

Grand Canyon University is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission (HLCommission.org), an institutional accreditation agency recognized by the U.S. Department of Education. Program availability varies and is not offered in all states or modalities. If you are seeking licensure/certification, please refer to the "Accreditation and Compliance/State Disclosures" link for the specific program of interest's website page for your location and/or employment state's licensure requirements, per 34 CFR 668.14(b)32 and 668.43(c). Policy information is available in the University Policy Handbook at gcu.edu/academics/academic-policies.php. Scholarship information is available on gcu.edu.
