

OLD DOMINION
UNIVERSITY

Old Dominion University Special Education Grant/Reduced Tuition Programs

Special Education: General Curriculum K-12 Endorsement

Old Dominion University offers grant funding/discounts for qualified Virginia school division personnel seeking endorsement in special education: general curriculum. Teachers with valid provisional special education: general curriculum licenses are eligible and other school personnel with bachelor's degrees may be eligible. Tuition assistance and discounts are available for provisionally licensed teachers; others receive course discounts.

ODU: email: Dr. Ann Maydosz cseep@odu.edu web: <http://www.odu.edu/education/programs/cseep>

Special Education: Adapted Curriculum K-12 Endorsement

Old Dominion University is pleased to join the Virginia Consortium for Teacher Preparation in Special Education Adapted Curriculum: Supporting Students with Severe Disabilities and Autism (ACSD Consortium). The ACSD Consortium is comprised of George Mason University; Radford University; James Madison University; Virginia Commonwealth University; and Old Dominion University. The program is designed to accelerate the training for teachers with newly-issued provisional licenses and to increase the number of fully endorsed teachers by providing training to new full-time pre-service personnel. ACSD Consortium courses will be delivered via distance formats using distance learning modalities. Tuition assistance and discounts are available. Contact the university nearest you today!

ODU: email: Dr. Ann Maydosz cseep@odu.edu; <https://www.odu.edu/cdse/scholarships-loans/acsd-consortium-for-endorsement-in-adapted-curriculum.html>

Visual Impairments and Blindness K-12 Endorsement

The Virginia Consortium for Teacher Preparation in Vision Impairment serves individuals with bachelor's degrees who wish to become teachers of the visually impaired. Applicants need not hold a current teaching license. Coursework is delivered via distance learning modalities. George Mason University, Radford University, and Old Dominion University are participating. Tuition assistance and discounts are available. Contact the university nearest you today!

ODU: email: Dr. Ann Maydosz cseep@odu.edu; <https://www.odu.edu/cdse/scholarships-loans/the-virginia-consortium-for-teacher-preparation-in-vision-impairment.html>